

Cranbourne South Riding Club (CSRC)

Guide to required behaviour for club members

Cranbourne South Riding Club is a family club for horse lovers and any mistreatment of horses will not be tolerated.

CSRC is a club that embraces the rights, dignity and worth of all regardless of their gender, sexuality, ability, cultural background or religion. It also strives to accommodate members who may have a disability of some kind.

In accordance with these principles the club strives to maintain a happy atmosphere. To achieve this we need all members to show respect and good manners to our instructors and to other members. Concerning instructors it may be that an instructor may have different methods than another. Also some exercises may work better with some horses than others. If you are not confident in what is being asked you can speak to the instructor politely and sort something out that will suit you and your horse.

If you still have a problem you can discuss it with the rally coordinator. IT IS NOT ACCEPTABLE TO RUN DOWN AND CRITICISE INSTRUCTORS TO OTHER MEMBERS, INSTRUCTORS OR ON SOCIAL MEDIA.

Therefore CSRC has a zero tolerance policy of members posting negative comments regarding club members or instructors on any form of SOCIAL MEDIA and/or public forum.

Parents and other onlookers observing a rally group under instruction must not disturb the instruction of the group or interfere with the group.

NO sideline conflicting coaching is to take place while a lesson is in progress!!!!

I acknowledge I have read and accept the CSRC code of conduct.
